What we do with your personally identifiable information

Benefit Administrative Systems, LLC values its visitors' privacy. This privacy policy is effective September 1, 2018 and summarizes what information we might collect from a registered user or other visitor ("you"), and what we will and will not do with it. It is always up to you whether to disclose personally identifiable information to us, although if you elect not to do so, we reserve the right not to register you as a user or provide you with any products or services. "Personally identifiable information" means information that can be used to identify you as an individual, such as, for example:

- your name, email address, phone number, billing address, and shipping address
- your user ID and password
- any account-preference information you provide us
- your computer's domain name and IP address, indicating where your computer is located on the Internet
- session data for your login session, so that our computer can 'talk' to yours while you are logged in

If you do provide personally identifiable information to us, either directly or through a reseller or other business partner, we will:

- not sell or rent it to a third party without your permission. We may use your contact information to provide you with information we believe you need to know or may find useful, such as (for example) news about our services and products and modifications to the Terms of Service;
- take commercially reasonable precautions to protect the information from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction;
- not use or disclose the information except:
 - as necessary to provide services or products you have ordered, such as (for example) by providing it to a carrier to deliver products you have ordered;

- in other ways described in this privacy policy or to which you have otherwise consented;
- in the aggregate with other information in such a way so that your identity cannot reasonably be determined (for example, statistical compilations);
- as required by law, for example, in response to a subpoena or search warrant;
- to outside auditors who have agreed to keep the information confidential;
- as necessary to enforce the Terms of Service;
- as necessary to protect the rights, safety or property of Benefit Administrative Systems, LLC, its users, or others; this may include (for example) exchanging information with other organizations for fraud protection and/or risk reduction.

Other Information we collect
